

Point your business in the right direction - North to Canada

You don't have to go far to find some of the best opportunities to increase your export business. As the U.S.'s largest trading partner and a NAFTA member, Canada offers a growing marketplace with endless possibilities.

And when deadlines are looming, UPS offers the broadest portfolio of cross-border guaranteed time-definite services. We're also the only carrier to offer two pre-noon, guaranteed services the next business day to select Canadian cities.

Forty years of service in our neighbor to the north can help turn these possibilities into reality. We've got the answers for your customs questions and solutions for your network needs, ground and air.

From figuring it out to getting it done, we can get your business pointed in the right direction.
